

2014 MARCH NEWSLETTER

OUR School

Dear OUR School Families,

March is already upon us and we have a very busy month ahead of us.

The children (Toddler and Preschool) are continuing to practice their play. They will also begin working on costumes, sets, tickets, and props. This year we are including a silent auction, snack and beverage sales to the night of the play. If you have great connections and would like to help the PAC (Parent Advisory Committee) obtain silent auction items, please contact me and I will let you know how you can help. Because this is our only fundraiser for the year, we ask that you donate what you can to make it a success. There will also be great items donated from awesome businesses in Glenwood, so bring your check book the night of the play and score some great deals! This year the play is taking place on Thursday, May 1st, please mark that in your calendars.

On Friday, March 14th, OUR School is closed for a Teacher Development Day. We take this time to complete trainings and make sure that we are doing our very best for your little ones.

Parent Teacher Conferences begin this month. There will be signup sheets in your child's classroom. The week of the 10th will be dedicated to the Infant Room conferences. The week of the 17th will be for the Preschool conferences, and the week of the 24th will be for the Toddler conferences. This is a great opportunity to catch up with your child's teacher regarding his or her progress and development, review your child's accomplishments, and set some new goals. If you have any questions, please let me know or contact your child's teacher.

Please don't forget to check our website regularly, as it has current information (Such as school closures, upcoming events, policies and other answers to common questions). It is a great resource, just waiting for you to use it!

Preschool News

The preschool has taken the knowledge and concepts they've learned about Asian culture and folklore and created a terrific play! The script has been completed, and they begin practicing this month. Costumes, sets, props, and tickets are right around the corner. We can't wait to perform for you on May 1st and show you the final product of what they will be working so hard on this spring!

Toddiland Happenings

Play practice, practice, practice will be our main focus this month. The toddlers will present their play to family and friends before the preschoolers perform theirs on Thursday May 1st. We will, of course, continue to stay busy with art projects, outside time, story time and sensory items.

Infant News

February was a short but exciting month. Our two new babies, Joey and Lucas, are walking all around the room with Emma. Abby is full of chatter, and when they are all together, the room is full of laughter. We are looking forward to March and Parent/Teacher conferences. We have lots in the portfolios to show, and tell with pictures and developmental milestones. Hopefully, we will also have some warm and mild weather for good outside time!
